

Deputy Fire Marshals

Tim Nalley joined the Marietta Fire Department in 1995 after serving ten years as a Volunteer in a neighboring Fire Department. Early in his career, Tim sought to expand his skill set in the medical field. In 1997, he successfully completed the Paramedic program and obtained his certification. He was quite proficient in emergency medicine, and in 2003 he earned the esteemed Valor Award for his life-saving efforts during an apartment fire. That same year, Tim was promoted to Firefighter Engineer.

The next few years proved to be quite busy for Tim. He continued aspiring for excellence, and in 2006 was awarded the Life Saver Award. That same year, Tim was promoted to Lieutenant. In the course of the next few years, he successfully completed a number of courses at the Georgia Fire Academy including Public Safety Educator, Fire Investigator, and Fire Inspector. His hard work paid off. In 2013, Tim was first promoted to Station Commander and then appointed Deputy Fire Marshal where he remains today.

Tim Milligan joined the Marietta Fire Department in 1997. He spent much of his early years on Squad 52; his drive to succeed was strong and he delved into the realm of technical rescue, an area of expertise that includes Rope Rescue, Swift Water Rescue, and Confined Space Rescue. He successfully completed Technician level certifications in all of those areas as well as in Hazardous Materials. Throughout Tim's career, he has added certifications as Fire Investigator, Fire Instructor, and CrossFit Level I Instructor. In 1998, he added to his resume the prestigious Award of Valor for stopping a knife-wielding shoplifter.

Tim has served in all divisions of the Marietta Fire Department. He earned two promotions in the Suppression Division, first to Firefighter Engineer and then to Lieutenant. After a time as a Company Officer in the field, Tim made a lateral transfer to the position of Lieutenant for the Training Division. He first served as Fire Department Instructor, teaching a variety of skills to both Fire Recruits and veteran personnel. His next assignment in the Training Division was Homeland Security Officer, where he maintained the Crisis Management Center and managed the city's emergency management plans. On his next promotion, Tim became a Station Commander in the Suppression Division. In 2014, Chief Gibbs appointed him Deputy Fire Marshal, and he returned to the Prevention Division.

Throughout his career, Tim has taken advantage of a number of opportunities to increase the level of his contributions to the fire service and to the citizens we serve. He is an Alumni of Leadership Cobb and Honorary Commanders, and sits on both the City Pension Board and the Executive Committee of Georgia Association of Public Trustees; in 2012, Governor Deal appointed Tim to the Board of Trustees for the Georgia Firefighter Pension Fund. He also has volunteered for a number of community organizations including the Center for Family Resources and SafePath Children's Advocacy Group.
